

Conference/Workshop on Volunteer Tourism

Dr. Eugenia Wickens
Dr. Jennifer Briedenhann
New Buckinghamshire University, UK

Venue: Boğaziçi University, Garanti Kültür Merkezi

Date: 5 November 2010, 9.30 -13.00

If you would like to see the world and learn new skills, international volunteering is the perfect way to round off university life. Attending this conference/workshop, you will find everything you need to know about what is ‘voluntourism’ and about choosing and planning international volunteering (e.g., South Africa and Nepal). The conference will cover the following:

- Welcome
- What is ‘voluntourism’?
- Demand for voluntourism
- Impacts of voluntourism
- Why do volunteering?
- Planning a volunteering placement?
- Working, studying, travelling & volunteering abroad
- Case studies in voluntourism
- South Africa
- Nepal
- Questions and Answers session

For more information contact Assoc. Prof. Dr. Maria Alvarez at alvarezm@boun.edu.tr or 0212 359 6987